Course Description
This course introduces students to the concepts and techniques of web development. Students will examine characteristics that make a web page unique and functionally effective. This course uses a hands-on approach that allows students to apply web development techniques to design their own web pages. Standard web development software products and markup language will be discussed. Web site implementation and problem solving strategies will also be covered.

Liberal Arts Curriculum (LAC) Policy
This course fulfills LAC Tier 2 –Applied Information Technology requirement.

Grading

Attendance   10%

Lab assignments and projects   80%

Final Project   20%

Attendance: Attendance is required. Missing one class without an official excuse will result in 1% deduction from your total grade (up to 10%).

Lab Assignments: You will be assigned a number of in-class laboratory projects and/or exercises. Make-up assignments will not be allowed unless you have an official excuse for missing class. All assignments are to be completed individually unless stated otherwise.

Grading Scale

93-100: A   90-92: A-

87-89: B+   83-86: B   80-82: B-

77-79: C+   73-76: C   70-72: C-

65-69: D+   60-64: D   59 and below: F

Academic Honesty

You are encouraged to discuss homework and in-class assignments with one another unless otherwise specified. However, copying answers from another student on quizzes and exams is cheating and this will not be tolerated. A student found cheating will automatically receive a grade of "F" on the assignment and will be reported to the department head who may administer further consequences.

Classroom civility

Cell phones are not appropriate in class and must be turned off or set to vibrate and stored off of the class desk. In general, follow the Golden Rule and treat others with respect and the way you want to be treated.

Special Accommodations

Eastern Connecticut State University is committed to following the requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. If you are a student with a disability (or think you may have a disability), and require adaptations or accommodations, or assistance evacuating a building in the case of an emergency, please contact the Office of AccessAbility Services (OAS) at 860-465-0189 to discuss your request further. Any student registered with the OAS should contact the instructor as soon as possible for assistance with classroom accommodations. Please note that accommodations are not retroactive, and must be communicated through a Letter of Accommodation which is drafted by the OAS.
